

MR. FITZGERALD'S ANSWER.

Alleges His Wife Brought Divorce Suit to Gain Notoriety.

WANTS TO GO ON THE STAGE.

MORE OF THE PARSONS SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

United States Commissioner McNally Holds That the Agents of Receivers May Be Served With Civil Process—A Novel Defense to a Suit For Wages—Ed. Ewing Fined $5 For Disturbing the Peace.

Michael Fitzgerald, the defendant in the divorce suit of Bella Fitzgerald vs. the said Michael Fitzgerald, has filed an answer to the complaint of his wife, in which he denies all the material allegations of the plaintiff. He denies that he ever treated her cruelly, ever struck, choked or attacked her with a knife or threatened to kill her, and also denies that he has failed to properly support her and their children. As a further defense, defendant alleges that he is a hard-working and industrious man and by his labor and industry has provided plaintiff with a suitable and comfortable home and with all the necessities of life, both for herself and children; that the plaintiff has for a long time neglected her duties as a wife and a mother by reason of the fact that she possesses and has a strong desire to enter the theatrical profession or go upon the stage as an opera singer; that she does not and has for a long time squandered and wasted large sums of money belonging to the defendant in striving to attain such end, and has commenced the action for divorce for the sole and only purpose of gaining notoriety in the hope that the same will assist her to obtain an engagement with some theatrical or opera company, and that she thereby intends to abandon this defendant and her said children.

Wherefore, the defendant asks that the existing bonds of matrimony be dissolved and that he be awarded the custody of the three minor children.

Suit to Quiet Title.

Judge Barch yesterday rendered judgment in the case of Alexander Rogers vs. John W. Donnellan, a suit to quiet title to a certain piece of real estate in Salt Lake City heretofore submitted. His honor found for plaintiff and granted thirty days' stay to prepare and serve a statement on motion for a new trial.

A. B. Dick & Co. vs. C. H. Parsons; continued till August 27.

Judgments Entered.

Judgments were yesterday entered in the Third district court as follows: Kahn Brothers vs. T. B. O'Reilly; for the plaintiff for $433.29 by default.

Vincent Shurtliff, Jr. vs. Elizabeth T. Shurtliff; decree of foreclosure and judgment for the plaintiff for $1,376.16.

Crane et al. vs. Miller & Cook.

In the suit of J. A. Crane and A. Butcherfield vs. Miller & Cook, in which judgment was rendered for the plaintiffs for $1,190, the defendants appeared before Justice Lochrie, who was appointed referee in the case.

On Supplementary Examination.

The examination of Dege and Parsons, of the Parsons News and Book company, in supplementary proceedings was continued yesterday before United States Commissioner McNally.

Attorney A. T. Schroeder appeared for the plaintiffs, the Sheffield Manufacturing company, and Parsons was represented by Attorney John M. Zane.

Dege admitted that he was to pay Parsons $2,200 in addition to the $2,200 already paid him for his half interest in the business provided that he made that much out of the business over and above his living expenses. Parsons also admitted that that amount was coming to him conditionally. This is the first time this $2,200 came to light.

Parsons was to file a statement of certain payments he had made.

Fined For Disturbing the Peace.

United States Commissioner McNally yesterday rendered judgment in the case of Ed Ewing charged on the complaint of Lewis M. Cannon with disturbing the peace. The disturbance was over three ferocious dogs kept by the defendant and which the plaintiff threatened to shoot. His honor imposed a fine of $5 and costs.

Suit For Wages.

W. J. Clark is suing M. Lackwitz in United States Commissioner McNally's court to recover $58 alleged to be due for wages for services rendered as a bartender. The defendant claimed that Clark had given away to his friends quantities of liquor and cigars, and that he called at the saloon, and had been doing, contributed to the breaking up of the defendant in business, and for the cause refused to pay the wages. The plaintiff alleged that he paid for everything he got. A continuance until today was had.

A NICE POINT OF LAW.

Commissioner McNally Rules the Agents of Receivers May Be Served.

The case of J. C. Lewis vs. the receivers of the Union Pacific railroad came up before United States Commissioner McNally. The suit is brought to recover $100 damages for alleged trespass. The summons was served on Attorney P. L. Williams as agent of the company. The defendants contended that such service was not good. Attorney Kroeger, for the plaintiff, argued that under the United States statutes which authorizes suits against receivers without leave of the court, the receivers may be served in the same manner as corporations. The summons was served on their agents. The point was argued on Wednesday and his honor yesterday handed down his decision sustaining the argument of the plaintiff's attorney and holding that the service was good.

Hearing Set For Today.

M. Wasserman, charged with obtaining board at the Walker house to the amount of $49.50 and skipping out without paying, and who was arrested at Ogden yesterday, was arraigned before Commissioner Pratt yesterday and the hearing set for 2 p. m., today.

He Went to Jail.

A. J. Loomis, alias Jenkins, who was arrested in Ogden on Thursday night by Captain Donovan, had a hearing before United States Commissioner Pratt yesterday on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and forgery. Loomis represented himself to be an agent of Auerbach Bros., entrusted to sell Butterick's fashion patterns.

In the Depths of Misery.

Though endowed with wealth "beyond the dreams of avarice," the wretched sufferer from chronic dyspepsia is plunged in the depths of misery from which he or she seldom emerges even for a day at a stretch. There is a way to end the imp. Evolve the aid of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and he departs. Keep using the medicine, and the relief you promptly experience finally becomes permanent and a thorough cure is effected. Heartburn, flatulence, uneasiness and sinking at the pit of the stomach, nervousness, insomnia—these are symptoms first relieved and finally cured, with their cause, by this ineffably reliable specific. Liver complaint and constipation, torments of dyspepsia, are also sent to limbo by the Bitters. So are rheumatism, malaria and kidney complaint. Use this helpful medicine systematically, not by fits and starts.

AT THE RESORTS.

THE MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATIONS AT SALT LAKE.

The Pioneers' Excursion on Monday—The Wild West Show at Calder's Park—The Newsboys' Outing.

Notwithstanding the threatening state of the weather there was a large attendance at the M. I. A. excursion at Saitair yesterday.

Christensen's orchestra never played better and as the large proportion of excursionists were young people, the facilities for dancing were enjoyed to the utmost.

There were fancy dances in the afternoon which were unusually well executed. The "Young Recruit Silver Band" was in attendance from South Taylorville and furnished the music for a pretty tambourine march and dance by twelve misses from Taylorville. The Maypole winding by a dozen pretty girls from the East Side was an attractive feature, and the young ladies who gave the hoop drill were pretty costumes and were graceful in the many and intricate movements required. By request these dances were repeated in the evening.

After the programme many "took to the water," coming out with appalling appetites and rosy cheeks.

At 6:30 a. m. a very enjoyable concert was given, in which Miss Viola Pratt and Mr. George D. Pyper were the vocalists and Mr. H. S. Krouse the accompanist. Miss Pratt sang with the "Happy Day" a duet, "The Boat Song," closed the programme.

Dancing was generally participated in, and when the last train left for Ogden, many merry-makers returned to the city.

The Pioneers' Excursion.

From present indications the Pioneers' outing at Saitair on Monday will be one of the famous excursions of the season. The excursionists, among the mementoes that will be seen at Saitair are the local newspapers which contained an account of the gallant band, and pointed out the manifestations of Almighty power, which bore them safely through to the obtaining of the bloodless victory on the Pacific coast, which was promised with the words, "when he rescues the young when the battalion started out."

Among other interesting reminders of bygone days will be a pioneer wagon—on which the battalion was taken to Kimball crossed the plains. It was presented by the owner to Philip Pugsley, of this city, with a request that he would not dispose of it, a wish that has been scrupulously observed. Mr. Pugsley kindly consented to have the wagon exhibited at Saitair.

Other relics will consist of flags, banners, etc., used by the Mormon battalion and Nauvoo legion; cannon and small arms that were brought across the plains in early days, and many other articles of like historic interest all of which will combine to recall vividly the scenes of former times to those who participated therein, and to convey a great lesson to the new generation regarding the opening up of the Great West.

At Calder's Park.

The Wild West show opened at Calder's park yesterday, and it proved far superior to the exhibition given during the Tuscarora encampment. An especially interesting feature was the arrival of the pony express, conveying the identical dispatches received by the army back in '60, and they were read to the crowd. The show will be given again today and the full programme as published in this issue.

On Sunday in addition to the regular features, will be the great relay race of Jack Prince and Albert Schock, the bicyclists, against horses.

The Newsboys' Outing.

The newsboys are making extensive preparations for their excursion to Calder's park on Tuesday, August 28. They have secured a lot of fine prizes, which will be on exhibition at Arbogast's today.

Notes.

The Saturday Night club goes to Saitair this evening and special efforts are being made to make this the club's most enjoyable excursion.

The Provo schools and B. Y. academy will take possession of beautiful Saitair today.

The Gun Shoot Club.

The regular weekly shoot of the Salt Lake Gun club took place at Saitair yesterday. The wind was blowing very hard and prevented as good scores being made as usual. But, considering the conditions, the scores made were very creditable. M. B. Brown won the prize medal. The score is as follows:

Sharp Sin. Dbl. Total.
Johnston 15 5 20
Cannon 15 5 20
Brown 15 5 20
Brookbank 15 5 20
May 15 5 20
Picknell 15 5 20

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Ives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succumbing to La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. She is now well, free of all Z. C. M. I. drug department. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

CAUSED QUITE A SCARE.

The Sensational Rumor Concerning That Bunco Scheme.

THE ALLEGED RAPE CASE.

THE HEARING WILL BE RESUMED THIS AFTERNOON.

Two Girls From the Reform School Paraded in Boys' Attire—Frank McMahon Sent Up For Two Hundred and Fifty Days—Other Police Court Cases.

The intimation that other arrests would more than likely follow as developments occur in the great bunco game, caused considerable consternation among those interested in the affair. It is barely possible that some of the prime movers who are still at liberty may take it upon themselves to make their escape while the opportunity affords. The police are still on case and when the preliminary hearings are held on Monday will be prepared for the contest.

That Alleged Rape Case.

The alleged rape case, in which Fred S. Godbe and Ernest Dawes figured as principals, will be on again in the police court this afternoon. The defense is said to have a number of experts to examine.

Upon the pleadings of Jennie Wilson, said to have been outraged, Mayor Baskin yesterday pardoned her husband. The fellow was serving seventy-five days for vagrancy. The pair will leave the city at once, the police having notified Wilson that any delay will mean his arrest for vagrancy.

DOXED BOYS' CLOTHING.

Two Young Girls Escaped From the Reform School.

Two girl inmates of the Reform school yesterday found a very romantic episode in their young lives cut short by Detective Sheets and Sergeant Ferguson. They were Bertha Curtis and Martha Lordeau, aged 15 years, who escaped from the reformatory on Monday, using full suits of boys' clothes as disguises. Both are again headed for the school.

On Monday afternoon the girls, both of whom had been sent to the school from this city for petty thefts and incorrigibility, slipped out of the building and into the orchard. There they changed their dresses for suits of overalls, jumpers and slouch hats, and then made their escape. That night they reached Utah, and there, securing a pair of shears, cut each other's hair. Their disguise was then complete, and the journey toward Salt Lake was resumed on foot. This city was reached on Thursday night, and the girls were still in the overalls and jumpers, but the Curtis girl's mother furnished her with a change of raiment, the other remaining clad in the garb of a youth. She returned to the school in the same clothes.

Late Thursday Night Sergeant Sheets

received a tip to the effect that the girls were in the city, and yesterday morning he and Sheets visited the Curtis girl's mother furnished her with a change of raiment, the other remaining clad in the garb of a youth. She returned to the school in the same clothes.

McMahon Will Serve Two Hundred and Fifty Days.

Frank McMahon, an escapee from the chain gang, was before Police Justice Smith yesterday morning, having been recaptured by Sergeant Ford and Officers Roberts and Gillespie. He at once committed the service of his original sentence. At its conclusion the case will again be called.

Some months ago McMahon escaped from the chain gang and lost himself in the wide world. Yesterday morning he was picked up by the officers named on Union Pacific property for trespass and then the identity of the fellow became known. He was originally given 250 days in jail for having burglar tools in his possession. Bill Nixon, the other escapee, was not arraigned and will more than likely be released.

Roy Wagstaff and Albert Wilschek, lads, who raided an orchard in the eastern part of the city, were discharged with a severer punishment. These boys are said to be members of a gang which is doing considerable fruit stealing in that section.

James Wilson, one of the men arrested with McMahon, was given fifteen days for trespass, and J. R. Maxwell, the third member of the gang, received two days.

Grace Wallace, "The Midget," and Florence St. John, the prostitutes arrested at the time of the raid of the "Three Demes," were arraigned for sentence and fined $25 each. They gave notice of appeal. The justice fixed the amount of the appeal bond at $100.

James Hendrickson, the peddler, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of peddling within the restricted district, and was fined $5.

O. H. Farlinger, who resides on West Fort Street, was assessed $15 for using foul language toward Lottie Pace, the 12-year-old daughter of Emily S. Pace, a neighbor. The attack was entirely unjustifiable.

Several other cases of no importance were disposed of.

GLASSMAN SUSTAINS A LOSS.

Valise Full of Campaign Thunder Stolen From Him.

The Hon. Bill Glassman fell into the hands of baggage lifters yesterday morning. Some individual took his valise from the Grand Pacific hotel. To make matters worse that valise was clear full of campaign thunder, which the gentleman does not desire shall fall into the hands of the "unscrupulous Denverites" who are booked for a tour of the south in the interests of Republicanism, and loaded his grip with literature for use in the campaign. The police will endeavor to recover the lost political budget.

Later the valise was picked up on Sixth Street between Main and West Temple streets by George A. Winberg, who took it to police headquarters. It had been ripped open and a suit of underclothing abstracted. The Republican campaign lies which it contained were said to be expected, too much for the thief and he left them intact.

COURT AT ST. GEORGE.

Preparations Being Made For the September Term.

The people of St. George are making great preparations for the holding of the September term of the Second district court in their city.

The county officials of Washington county have just completed extensive alterations and repairs on the commodious brick court house by which it is made very convenient for court purposes. In the main room on the second floor the judge stand with bar, etc., has been erected. Commodious chambers have been furnished for the judge, jury rooms, clerk's room and marshal's room have also been fitted up. Judge Barth, who is judge of that district, has secured apartments at Snow's hotel. The latter, it is understood, will be accompanied by Mrs. Brigham, who will spend the time the term lasts in enjoying the beautiful scenery of that portion of the country.

Hitherto the only benefit the St. George people have derived from the terms of the Second district court has been that of whatever little those who acted as jurors were paid for mileage to Beaver. Now the Beaver people will get the mileage to St. George.

The Parowan people are looking forward to the November term which will be held in their city.

Wednesday, August 22, is the date of the low rate excursion to all the favored the Union Pacific. See the advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

A PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

HOW THE REPUBLICANS WILL RAISE A FUND.

The Finance Committee Levies a Sort of an Income Tax on Members of the Party.

The snap has been given away. It is the intention of the Republicans to pack the constitutional convention in the interests of their own party, regardless of the fact that upon the work of that convention will depend the future of the coming state of Utah.

The plea has been made to keep politics out of the constitution, but the Republicans have determined to have it all their way and are opening the campaign. The finance committee of the local organization has levied an assessment under which the necessary cash is to be raised. A grave mistake was made, however, in including good Democrats in the list. These latter have received copies of the following heartening appeal:

Republican Headquarters, Salt Lake City, August 16:

Dear Sir: The most important political campaign ever conducted in this territory will be inaugurated within the next ten days. Upon the outcome of this election and the victory will depend the prospective future of our fair territory, which can only be brought about through the principles of the Republican party. Every Republican who has the interests of his party and this territory at heart must make every sacrifice within his power to see that this territory is represented by a great majority of Republicans at the territorial convention to be held next March. The election will take place in the month of November; the fight to carry it will begin right now. Money is the first vital requisite necessary to begin the fight with. Your name has been selected as one of the prominent Republicans who can be relied on for support and contribution.

The Curtis committee has carefully canvassed the names of those who could be asked for support, and after making an estimate of the most necessary expenditures, have divided the names into one hundred, fifty, and twenty-five dollar contributions.

Kindly send us your check for at least $25 and enclose therewith an inclination to contribute to the committee in the enclosed envelope, payable to James E. Jennings, secretary.

Your committee have expended a great deal of time and labor in preparing lists and arranging for the procuring of necessary funds, and have adopted this method of soliciting your aid rather than calling in person, believing that it will be more agreeable to you, and thereby saving the committee the necessity of wasting valuable time in the routine in other directions. Very Respectfully,

M. H. WALKER, FRANK KNOX, J. R. DOWNEY, FRED SIMON, JES. LIPPMAN.
